Re: U.S. Patent No. 10574721 — Response to Assertion of Infringement

Dear Counsel,

We acknowledge receipt of your correspondence asserting infringement of U.S. Patent No. 10574721 (the "10574721 Patent"). After preliminary review, we have substantial concerns about the validity, enforceability, and scope of the asserted claims, summarized below. We reserve all rights and defenses.

1. Subject Patent — Summary

Analysis of U.S. Patent 10,574,721

Washington, D.C. - An analysis of United States Patent 10,574,721, titled "Systems and methods for an automatic fresh browser instance for accessing internet content," reveals a system designed to enhance web browsing security by isolating sensitive online activities. The patent, issued on February 25, 2020, was filed on December 8, 2014. It lists Rida A. Bazzi and Mohsen Zohrevandi as inventors. The current assignee is Skysong Innovations LLC, following an assignment from the Arizona Board of Regents on behalf of Arizona State University.

The core of the invention, as detailed in the abstract, is a system that automatically creates a "Fresh Browser..."

2. Request

In light of the foregoing, we request that your client (i) provide a detailed claim chart identifying each accused product or service and mapping every limitation of each asserted claim, (ii) identify any prior art known to your client, including any references cited during prosecution or reexamination, and (iii) substantiate the basis for any damages or licensing demand. We are prepared to discuss the matter further once we have received and reviewed the foregoing.

Sincerely,
