Re: U.S. Patent No. 9042910 — Response to Assertion of Infringement

Dear Counsel,

We acknowledge receipt of your correspondence asserting infringement of U.S. Patent No. 9042910 (the "9042910 Patent"). After preliminary review, we have substantial concerns about the validity, enforceability, and scope of the asserted claims, summarized below. We reserve all rights and defenses.

1. Subject Patent — Summary

An analysis of United States Patent 9,042,910 reveals the following details:

Title: Method and system for monitoring a mobile station presence in a special area

Assignee: The current assignee is listed as Avant Location Technologies LLC. The original assignee was AFIRMA CONSULTING & TECHNOLOGIES SL.

Inventor: Carlos A. Perez Lafuente

Filing Date: April 11, 2014

Issue Date: May 26, 2015

Abstract: The patent describes a method and system for monitoring when a mobile station is within a "special area." This is achieved by a radio communication device transmitting a distinctive signal that defines the special area. The mobile station receives and processes this signal to determine if it...

2. Request

In light of the foregoing, we request that your client (i) provide a detailed claim chart identifying each accused product or service and mapping every limitation of each asserted claim, (ii) identify any prior art known to your client, including any references cited during prosecution or reexamination, and (iii) substantiate the basis for any damages or licensing demand. We are prepared to discuss the matter further once we have received and reviewed the foregoing.

Sincerely,
